2009

Roberto Somoza - saxophonist, composer and arranger. He is a saxophone teacher (specialising in jazz) at the music conservatory in Coruña (Conservatorio de Música da Coruña), leader of various formations (with whom he has released 4 records) and saxophonist in the groups Clunia and Atlantic Bridge. He is proud to present his new project.

Roberto Somoza Jazz Orchestra:

The Vanguard, is a project which pays tribute to the alto saxophone, with contemporary compositions and arrangements which exploit the format of the modern jazz orchestra to the full.

The record being presented was recorded in the Bruar studios for the Xingra.com label, and was composed, arranged and conducted by Roberto Somoza.

A five-piece wind section and a rhythm trio give shape to this record which also boasts the collaboration of the great pianist and composer Nani García, and was produced by Javier Ferreiro.
